

A SHOPPER'S GUIDE TO BUYING RECYCLED

Every time you go shopping, you can reduce waste and support US jobs by purchasing items made with recycled materials. Not sure where to start? Here's a handy map showing you where recycled-content products and packaging are most commonly found.

ENTRANCE

- Beverage bottles
- Detergent & soap bottles
- Garbage bags
- Food packaging

- Plastic berry and salad boxes

- Yarn
- Fabric swatches

- Storage containers
- Hampers
- Garbage and recycling cans
- Fleece blankets

- Plastic toys
- Packaging

- Polyester clothing
- Hangers
- Backpacks

- Phone and camera accessories
- Speakers
- Calculators

- Pens
- Desk accessories
- Scissors
- Plastic clipboards

- Oil drain pans
- Gas cans
- Oil filters

- Plant pots
- Garden furniture
- Decking

- Pet beds
- Plastic toys
- Potty pads

- Hair care
- Body wash
- Makeup
- Lip balm

→ CHECK-OUT

WHAT TO LOOK FOR

Next time you're shopping, how can you tell if a product or package is recycled? Look for labels like "made with recycled content" or "contains recycled plastic." "Postconsumer content" is the best — that guarantees the recycled plastic comes from homes and businesses, like yours!

